Aspen Valley Hospital's Vision is to be the leader in fostering the healthiest community in the nation. As the forerunner in nurturing a healthy community, we should be good stewards of our resources and the beautiful place where we live. Collectively, we can help improve the Pitkin County Landfill lifespan by creating better habits to reduce our impact on our landfill. If we all remember to reduce, reuse and recycle, we can produce less waste, keep our community healthy, and protect our environment.

Roasted Carrot and Beet Soup Recipe

By Elsa Ramirez Brisson, MPH, RD Published November 17, 2018

Although it's an unconventional combination, beets and carrots unite to produce an exceptionally interesting and comforting flavor. Beyond that, these colorful vegetables can fill your soup bowl with a variety of nutrients and phytonutrients, as well as fiber.

Tip: For the freshest flavor of all, plant beets and carrots in your garden in the spring — or find them fresh at your local farmers market.

Ingredients

Vegetable oil cooking spray
5 large carrots, peeled and sliced (3 cups)
1 pound fresh beets, peeled and chopped*
2 celery ribs, thinly sliced (1½ cups)
1 large onion, quartered (2 cups)
1 tablespoon extra-virgin olive oil
2 tablespoons brown sugar
2 teaspoons ground cinnamon
1 teaspoon ground ginger
½ teaspoon nutmeg
¼ teaspoon black pepper
3 14-ounce cans low-sodium chicken broth
¼ cup reduced-fat sour cream for garnish
Fresh chives, chopped, for garnish

Cooking Notes

*Sub 1 15-ounce can beets, rinsed and drained. Instead of roasting, puree them with other vegetables in food processor or blender.*Sub Greek yogurt.

Nutrition Information Serves 8 as an appetizer or serves 4 as a main dish

Directions

1. Preheat oven to 400°F.
2. Coat a 9-by-13-inch baking dish with the cooking spray. Combine the carrots, beets, celery and onion in the dish. Drizzle with olive oil, and sprinkle with sugar, cinnamon, ginger, nutmeg and pepper. Toss to coat vegetables. Cover the dish tightly with aluminum foil and roast for 1 hour, or until the vegetables are fork tender. Cool slightly.
3. In a food processor or blender, puree the roasted vegetables with the broth in batches until smooth. Combine the batches in a heavy 2-quart saucepan. Heat on medium-low until warmed through.
4. Garnish with sour cream and chives.
